UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following O R D E R

- In this batch of petitions under Article 32 of the Constitution, the petitioners seek recognition of the right of couples of the same gender to marry.
- Besides relying upon the decisions of this Court in K S Puttaswamy (Retired) and Another vs Union of India and Another¹ and Navtej Singh Johar vs Union of India², the petitioners have asserted broader constitutional entitlements arising out of the right to life and personal liberty and the right to dignity which is embodied in the provisions of the Constitution including its Preamble and as a natural incident of Articles 14, 19 and 21.
- The submissions involve the inter play between constitutional rights on the one hand and specific legislative enactments including the Special Marriage Act 1954, the Foreign Marriage Act 1969, the Hindu Marriage Act 1955, the Citizenship Act and the Transgender Persons Protection of Rights Act 2019 on the other.
- 1 (2019) 1 SCC 1
- 2 (2018) 10 SCC 1

- 4 One of the issues raised before the Court relates to the rights of transgender couples to marry, as a natural incident of their constitutional entitlements.
- Having due regard to the broader context of the petitions before this Court and the inter relationship between the statutory regime and constitutional rights, we are of the considered view that it would be appropriate if the issues raised are resolved by a Bench of five Judges of this Court in view of the provisions of Article 145(3) of the Constitution.
- 6 We accordingly direct that the hearing of these petitions be posted before a Constitution Bench.
- In pursuance of the previous order of this Court, the nodal counsel nominated by the Court have prepared a common compilation of documents together with written submissions. Counsel shall rely during the course of the hearing only on the common compilation. Hence, should any of the counsel wish to add to the common compilation, they shall intimate Ms Arundhati Katju and Mr Kanu Agrawal, the nodal counsel who will include the additions in the common compilation.
- 8 The petitions shall be listed for final disposal and hearing on 18 April 2023 at 10.30 am.
- The Solicitor General states that a counter affidavit has already been filed. In the event that any supplement is required to be made to deal with the issues which may have been raised in any individual petition or a subsequent petition which has been filed after the date of the counter affidavit, that shall be done within a period of three weeks. Rejoinder affidavit, if any, may be filed before the next date of listing.
